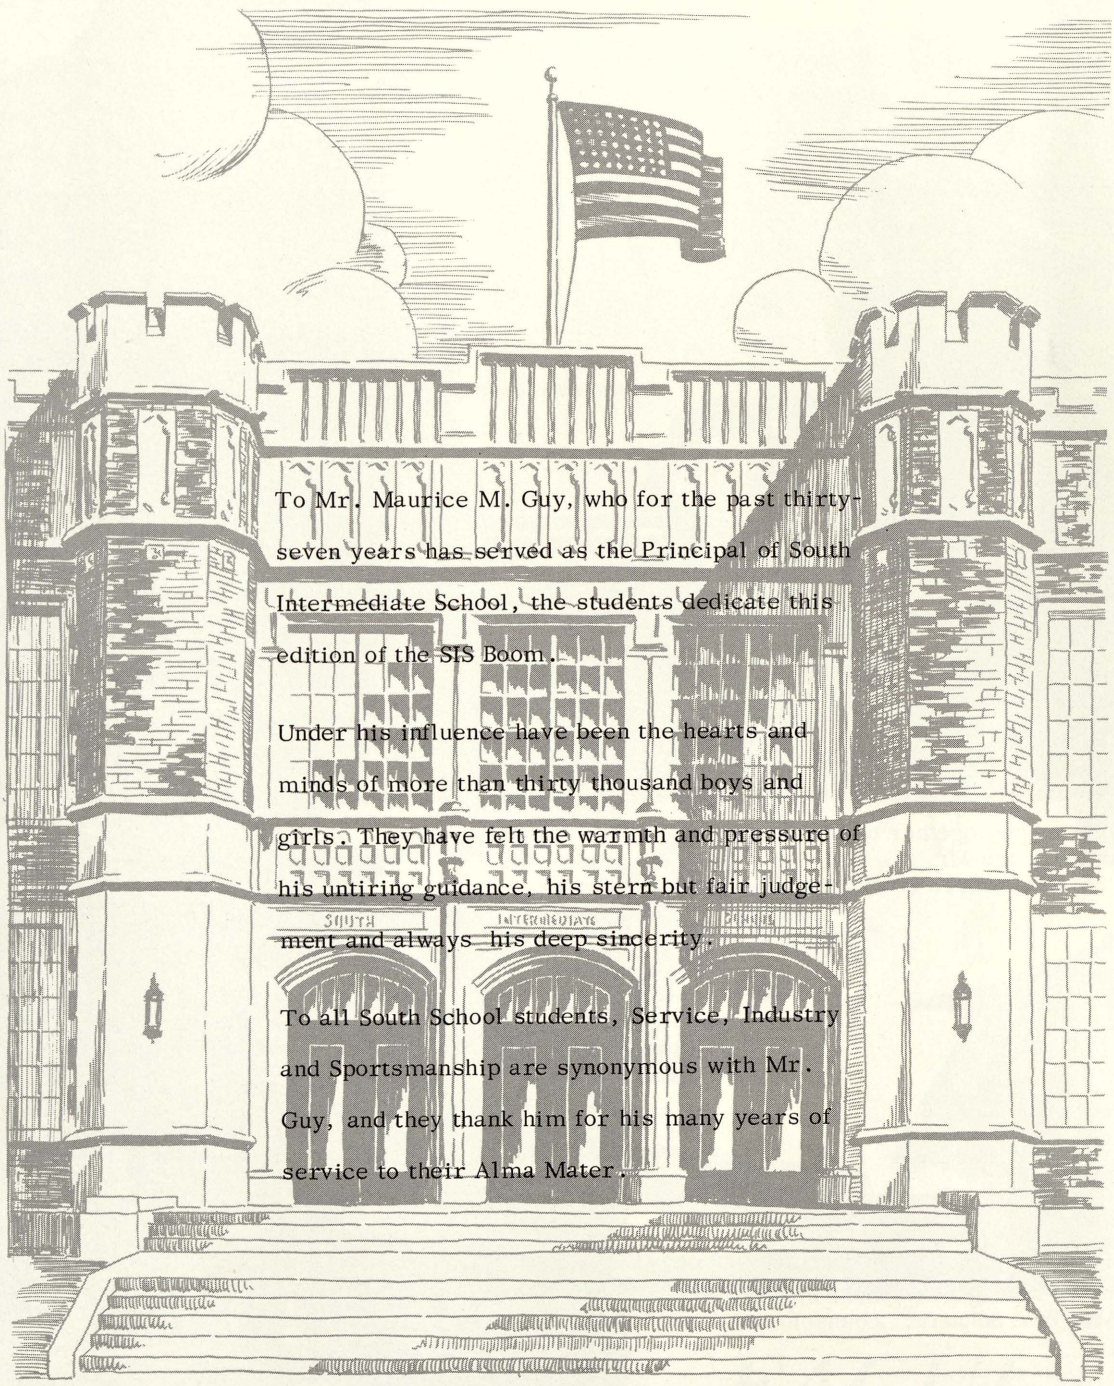
In Appreciation . . .



To Mr. Maurice M. Guy, who for the past thirty-seven years has served as the Principal of South Intermediate School, the students dedicate this edition of the SIS Boom.

Under his influence have been the hearts and minds of more than thirty thousand boys and girls. They have felt the warmth and pressure of his untiring guidance, his stern but fair judgement and always his deep sincerity.

To all South School students, Service, Industry and Sportsmanship are synonymous with Mr. Guy, and they thank him for his many years of service to their Alma Mater.

Board of Education

Providing the leadership, essential to excel are the Board of Education members (l-r) Walter A. Leesch, Vice President; Walter C. Averill; R. Joseph Heagany, Secretary; Dr. John O. Goodsell, President; Charles C. Coulter, Superintendent; Harold M. Karls; John A. Picard; Eugene P. Stansbury, Treasurer.

Administrators Provide Essentials To Help Us Achiev

Working together to help us achieve our goals are Mr. M. Guy, Principal, and Miss L. Gay, Dean of students.

After eleven years of faithful service, Mr. C. C. Coulter, Superintendent of Schools, is retiring from the Saginaw School System.

First Class Help

Works Hard To . . .

Just a few of the tasks undertaken by Mrs. Herzog and Mrs. Shallhorn, South's secretaries, are aiding students, filing and typing.

Keep Us Warm, Fed and Well Organized

Janitors: (l-R) Emil Sternhagen, Theresa Boyd, Harold Strother, Ann Wozniak, and Harold De Lude always find an active day at South. Missing: Harold Finch, Edwin Wilson, Richard Jaloszyhski, and Berend Botje.

Helping in the cafeteria every day as hungry students pour in are: (l-r) Mark Paxton, David Scheib, Theresa Morford, Collette Rood, Rose Stewart, Christine McCrary, Marilyn Gerow, Joyce Van Sickle, Larry Korting, Harold Garchow, and chief cooks and bottle washers; Margaret Colpean and Grace Simmet.

SCHOOL LIFE

We Give Our Best

Assisting the secretaries in either South Intermediate or South Elementary are the office staff. With all qualifications met, these girls who don't find much time for relaxation are; THIRD ROW, (1-r), J. Wheeler, D. Dill, J. Mitchell. SECOND ROW, J. Cook, N. Pieschke, C. Rowland, A. McCracken. FIRST ROW, P. Heavenrich, J. Stone, J. Kiebala.

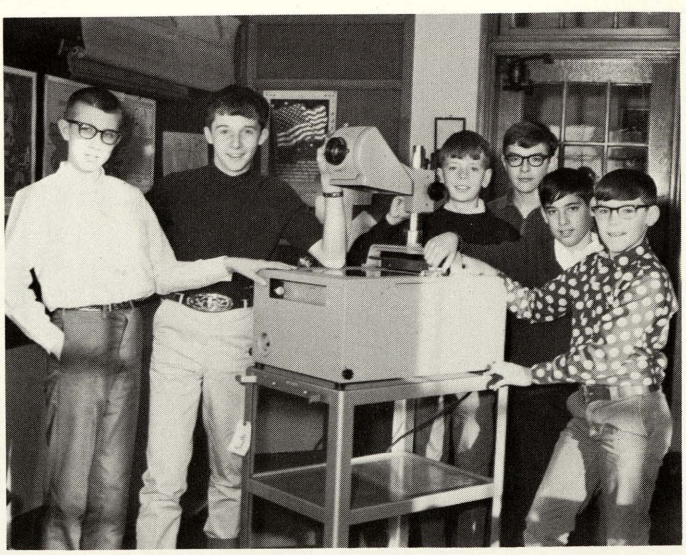
During Red Cross week, the race for contributions was on between homerooms. Displaying the scoreboard are K. Zemanek, R. Malicoat, T. Shannon, and A. Wickes.

Behind the scenes Mr. Eynon's stage crew, consisting of B. Hoffman, P. Weber and S. de Geus, try to keep the assemblies and programs under control and running smoothly.

As We Serve Our School

Keeping shelves neat, checking overdues and running errands are just part of the tasks of Mrs. St. John's library staff. They are: (BACK ROW l. to r.) C. Beckert, J. Ducharme, J. Zahn, S. Muehlenbeck, C. Anderson, K. Kitsch, J. Beffrey. (SECOND ROW) M. Meyer, B. Wahl, P. Schultz, K. Miller, S. Furlo, W. Westlund. (FIRST ROW) J. Wiese, B. Tilot, J. Fowler, P. Schriver, J. Bradley, missing are S. Salesky and M. J. Hughes.

Leading the Pledge of Allegiance at all assemblies and programs is the flag crew, J. Frick, D. Frost, C. DeFord.



Always ready, Mr. Shelly's audio visual staff came to the aid of many teachers throughout the year. The boys who served this year are (l. to r.) G. Stahl, M. Davis, K. Seidel, D. Kris, M. Kahn, T. Meuller, missing: J. Heidger.

Mrs. Elmer Meyers, Mrs. Carl Schrage, and Mrs. Robert Hanes, P.T.A. President, assist in making the fall Get-acquainted tea a success.

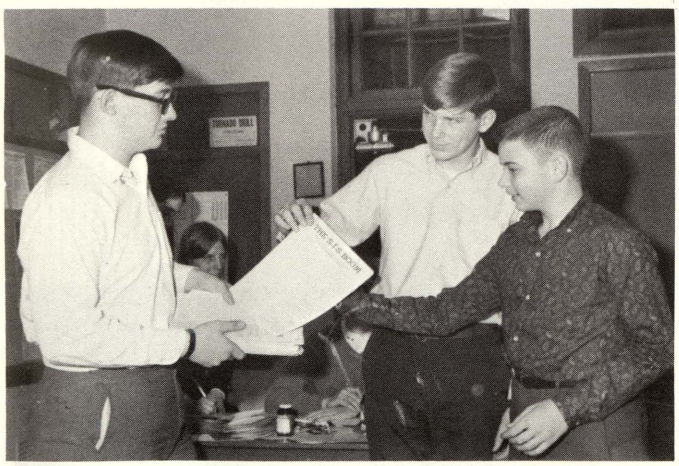
Groups Work To Create a Good South Image

FIRST ROW: (Top to Bottom): C. Anderson, H. Hargesheimer, S. Decker, D. Cappell, C. Dersch, J. Ward. SECOND ROW: D. Galbraith, J. Specht, G. Vander Klipp, J. Steiner, S. Holt, and P. Heavenrich, all A students at South this year, set the pace for others to follow in striving for perfection.

R. Huebner, G. Hunter, D. Enos, and R. Leggitt (l-r), start the presses rolling to print copies of the SIS-Boom.

Sis Boom Staff Reaches for Perfection with New Format

Learning the tricks of the journalism trade to take over next year are Dan Cappell, John Behm, Dave Hanson, Diane Galbraith, Jacquie Specht, Andy Abler, and Barb Besson. Kris Baumgarten is missing.



Helping to distribute the SIS Boom, South's paper, are Dave Hammock, Dave Mertz, and Marc Sudheimer. (left)

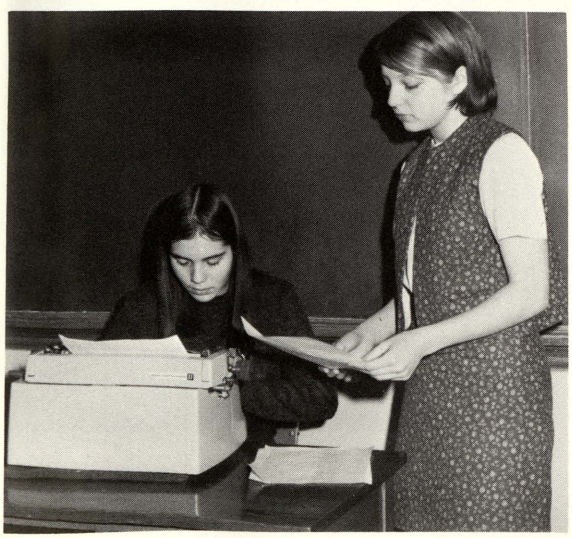
Pasting, cropping, and planning all go to make a perfect yearbook is proven by Martha Olney, Anne Stair, and Andi Garwood. (lower right)



Kathy Zemanek and Amber Wurtz captivated the audience by singing a vocal duet of "No Man Is an Island!"

Red Cross Benefits

Rachel Colosky tantalized the students with her folk song, "Five Hundred Miles."

As Martha Olney tickled the ivories, she played selections from "West Side Story."

Kathy Basett and Cindy Meyer amused the audience with their pantomine of "I Won't Go Hunting With You, Jake."

from Our Talents

Mistress of Ceremonies, Andi Garwood, presented the oncoming performers waiting in the wings.

Janice Kelly and Kathy Murphy put forth concentration as they played their selection from the "Tiajuana Brass."

The Mexican spirit was projected as Janice Treier danced The Mexican Hat Dance.

The strings remain mute and the bows hushed as Mr. Shumate and the orchestra relax after a strenuous rehearsal.

Singing is their business, or so it seems, as the Mixed Choir finishes one of its concerts with Miss Gase.

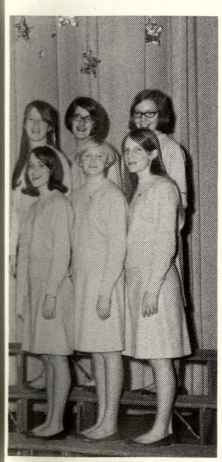
Singing in the Madrigals this year are, TOP ROW: (l-r): S. Decker, C. Gardstrom, D. Mann, J. Kressley, L. Meyer, B. Dyer, K. Zemanek, accompanists M. Olney, M. Hughes. BOTTOM ROW: J. Beffrey, K. Parsons, J. Crawford, A. Wurtz, S. Patterson, N. Lane, and A. Stair.

Livening up the music department, the eighth grade band puts in a hard year of work.

The Pursuit of Excellence Is Expressed Through Music

The blaring of the trumpet and the beating of the drum cease as Mr. Shumate and the senior band pose for a picture.



While proving their singing ability, South's feminine voices blend in melodic harmony as Miss Gase directs.

Assembled on stage, the cast momentarily slackens its pace and poses for the camerman before resuming rehearsal.

Dramatists Gain Success with "Defiance of David Charles"

The Principal, D. Hammock, his secretary, J. Frick, and the guidance counselor, J. Ward, discuss a mutual problem with Mr. Charles, J. Schadt and Mrs. Charles, Sue Love.

Tom Armstrong and Stu de Geus mix it up as the cast goads them on.

Finis—"The Pursuit of Excellence"

Vacant lockers and mute halls typify South as another year is drawn to a close. Journalists also lay their pens aside after completing the yearbook. Gratitude is expressed to the ninth grade staff: Janet Boyce, Andi Garwood, Dave Hammock, Patricia Laeding, Dave Mertz, and Marc Sudheimer. Even though the eighth graders joined the staff near the completion of the yearbook, they helped wrap up the job.

Special recognition also goes to Mr. Maurice Guy, South's principal, and Mr. Figg of the publishing company for their assistance. Werkema Studio did an outstanding job of getting pictures ready for us before our deadlines.

Last, but certainly not least, we wish to express our deepest thanks to the teacher who encouraged us and kept up our spirits, Mrs. Becker.

As a final thought, we would like to say goody-bye and thank you to all the students and faculty who certainly made this year "The Pursuit of Excellence".
